The Hon. THE Society formed at Shanghai with the object of combatting the evil of footbinding amongst the Chinese should command the adherence and support of the European communities at all the treaty ports and in Hongkong. Whether the presentation of likely to have much practical effect may perhaps be doubted, but it is bound to do some times of stress and danger-and the present highest to the lowest, can be induced to take any new step. It is of course easy to throw movements seem to lend themselves to this form of attack; and in the present case the opponents of the Tien Tsu Hui can use the a practice of tight lacing amongst European month before use. Even granting, however, that tight lacing amongst European women exists to such an extent as to constitute a real evil that surely is no reason for discouraging an attempt to combat a much greater evil. THE SITUATION IN FORMOSA [FROM A COBRESPONDENT.] -

Anping, 30th April. The news of the outbreak at Tamsui has caused a great sensation here, and although there is apparently no cause for immediate slarm there is little doubt that all are very uneasy as people seem determined to fight to the last. The situation simply amounts to this if the Japanese come to take possession a rebellion will ensue, and the consequences will be more disastrous than actual warfare. The people and soldiers are exasperated to a degree, and the recent riot in the North clearly shows that an ontbreak may occur at any moment. At would and natives alike. And to show that the seem that nothing but foreign intervention can save the island from overwhelming disaster.
